

SHOT TO KILL.

to realize that he had a bullet in his ankle. He was assisted home and Dr. Bowers called. The bullet is lodged in the ankle and has not been removed but the doctor expects to remove it to-day. Scott is suffering quite severely but there is no immediate danger of serious results.

When Marshal Thornton could no longer stand up he sought help in the restaurant and was taken home where Dr. Bowers spent the morning hours caring for him. The wound is in the lower abdomen and is such as may justly be considered very dangerous. The bullet entered at the left of the median line and so far as now determined passed through the abdominal wall taking a downward, backward and inward course. How serious the wound may prove will be determined by the man's condition in the next 24 hours, but it is hoped that the bullet has not punctured the intestines and that he will recover from the injury.

Scott's wound in his right ankle is caused by the bullet entering the inner side of the ankle and lodging in the joint. Dr. Bowers will remove it to-day.

The courage of these two men in facing a gang of desperate men armed to the teeth, is worthy of high praise and it is the sincere hope of every citizen that they may speedily recover.

The news of the battle was immediately wired to Toledo and surrounding towns and every man along the river has taken down his shot gun and got his eye on everything that looks suspicious. Toledo sent out her reserves and the roads leading into the city are patrolled with armed officers.

The men were young, their leader being the older and about 5 ft. 8 in. in height, broad shouldered and a powerfully built man and addressed as Jimmie. The youngest whom they called Curly, appeared about 18 years old, with curly hair. He wore a cap, the others wore slouch hats. All wore light clothes and but two had overcoats.

They were desperate looking men and evidently prepared to make any sacrifice to avoid arrest.

January Sale of Undermuslins

Special Values in Good Underwear

Special purchases of muslin underwear made from materials bought before the big advance in the price of cotton goods and manufactured during the late fall and early holiday season—the dull period at the factory—have prepared us for this unprecedented sale. All garments are well made and finished and come from sanitary factories—no sweat-shop goods are included. The prices are a strong incentive to the economically inclined to purchase now.

Some Special Items of Interest

Hand-made Underwear, a beautiful selection of many choice styles, exquisitely made, from the finest materials.

A particularly fine showing of the dainty French Slip Over Gowns, so much desired.

The well-known "Home Made" Underwear when once purchased is a favorite ever after—it's so nicely made just as if you had done it at home. Only think of the time you have saved by buying it ready to wear.

Extra Values in Muslin Drawers at 19c.
200 dozen of Ladies' Umbrella Drawers, made of good cambric, some with cluster of fine tucks, others with hemstitched tucks, an extra value at 19c.

Corset Covers, 25c.
Eight different styles, made of good cambric, some with three rows of insertion across the front, lace trimmed; others with tuck fronts lace trimmed, and French covers with beading and embroidery trimmed, all special values.

Drawers, 25c.
Good full drawers with umbrella flounces, with cluster of fine tucks, with and without lace edges, some hemstitched tucks, others with embroidery edges.

Short Undershirts, 25c.
Short Undershirts, made of cambric with full flare ruffle with pin tucks, 27, 29, 31 inches long and extra wide.

Long Petticoats, 25c.
25 dozen ladies' long cambric Petticoats with tucked flounces, regular 69c values.

Fine Muslin Underwear at 98c and $1.00.
Long and short skirts, drawers, covers, gowns and chemise, all beautifully made, in a great variety of pretty styles, embodying the newest ideas for dainty underwear. Fine materials and beautiful trimmings of ribbon run beading, insertions, lace and embroidery edges—every one a special value.

Children's Muslin Underwear from 10c to $1.
A special showing of extra values in Drawers, Skirts and Gowns at such reasonable prices that it would not pay you to buy the material to make like them.

Corset Covers, 50c.
Several different styles, some trimmed with German Val. lace and three rows of insertion with ribbon run beading; others with lace and embroidery trimmed.

Drawers and Corset Covers at 33c.
